Fatty Legs Xara Choral Theatre

<http://www.xara.ca/touring-shows>

Fatty Legs is a dance/choral/storytelling performance about an Inuit girl who wants to go to residential school to learn how to read. When there she is made to wear oversized red leotards and this earns her the nickname "Fatty Legs". How she rids herself of the stockings and regains her dignity is beautifully danced by Sarain Carson-Fox while Xara Choral Theatre creates a provocative vocal and visual landscape.

David Myles

<http://davidmyles.com/>

"The folky finesse of James Taylor...the cool jazz of Chet Baker...the raucous rock of Chuck Berry" is how one reporter tried to capture the music of David Myles. He's a great entertainer with a rockabilly style that will keep your toes tapping long after the concert is over!
